Wayarian

Publishd annually by the
WAYARIAN STAFF
In Honor of the Senior Class
of the
Waynesboro Area Senior High School
Waynesboro, Pennsylvania

Foreword

This first edition of the Wayarian is a history and record of events of the class of 1955.

In developing our theme, we of the Wayarian staff, have compared our new school enterprise to a ship. Those of us who have had the privilege of embarking on this maiden voyage have made lasting friendships in our efforts to reach one common goal.

We wish to thank the students, faculty, and all the others without whose help this Annual could not have been published.

Hoist the sail! Full speed astern! . . . . A new ship is being tried out for maneuvers this year—a ship which, if successful on its maiden voyage, will box the compass against all winds. Her christenage? Waynesboro Area School District.

We dedicate this yearbook to all the deckhands; without those indispensibles, how could she traverse majestically with her sails swelling in the capsful of wind?

We dedicate this yearbook to the captain and his officers who turn away from hidden reefs and dangerous currents, and who bring her safely into port.

We dedicate this yearbook to the course of events resulting from such navigation, to the unchartered seas which are seen only through the shifting white mists of time.

When the ship careens or yaws off the course, the navigators will swing the stern and steer her by the stars, thrilling at the life along her keel.

She remains, as yet, unblemished by the expected knocks of maritime travel . . . But lend us a hand! We're off on a new school venture.

To the success of the venture, the class of 1955 dedicates this edition of the WAYARIAN.

Board of Education

Standing—Marsby C. Little, Superintendent; J. B. Mentzer, Secretary; Frank Sulzer, R. Tim Shank, Daniel Frankforter, Grover C. Miller.

Seated—Henry A. Kohler, Treasurer; Charles R. Mentzer, Glenn W. Brosius, Vice-President; Edward N. Hovis, President; Leslie M. Hess, J. Harvey Gearhart, Ralph Jones.

The Waynesboro Area Board of Education, mindful of the local need for better educated and better trained young men and women, and cognizant, because of present world conditions, of an even more acute need of high school and college graduates who not only have acquired an adequate knowledge of classroom subject material but also—what is equally important—the training and desire to live peacefully and cooperatively with his fellow men, extends to you its best wishes for a happy and rewarding life.

As you meet the problems of life, have confidence in your ability to succeed at any task. Never allow the possibility of failure to distort the picture of successful living which each of you must have constantly before you. Think only of succeeding; act positively toward this end with a firm conviction that you can do anything you want to do if it's right for you and right with God.

With special thanks to

To be fore-most in chart-ing the course of the ship launched forth this year; to try the craft that its de-fects may be re-vealed to us who steer; to in-fuse in it such a strength as may with-stand the stout-est gale; to grow, each of us, in char-ac-ter, com-bined and u-nit-ed in sail; to those who fol-low we hum-bly be-queath these i-deals we hold so dear.

Log of The S.S. '55

Two ships, the W.T.S.S. and the W.S.S., on September 2, 1951, set sail from different ports. Both harbored inexperienced seamen who had booked passage for a four-year voyage.

The W.T.S.S. was piloted by the newly selected Captain, Thomas Baylor; the First Mate, Randy Scott; the Steward, Ben Paull; the Purser, Miriam Delauter; and the Historian, Shirley Tracey. Likewise the W.S.S. was steered by its officers Franklin Woodring, Lee Niedentohl, Eunice Grove, and Sylvia Yordy.

In order to pay for passage, W.S.S. sponsored a Laural and Hardy movie, "Swiss Miss."

During a brief shore leave, the sailors toured the Gettysburg Battlefield.

Both crews closed the year with a party and dance.

The W.T.S.S. and the W.S.S. again set sail in September, 1952. This time from the Sophomore Pier after having taken on fuel and more provisions.

On this second lap, the officers on both the W.T.S.S. and the W.S.S. were the same as the previous year with the exception of Barry Berklite who served as First Mate; Barbara Hanna, Steward; and Sylvia Yordy, Purser.

The W.T.S.S. crew's activities for the year included a party, a shore leave spent at Hershey Park, a food sale, and the sale of peanuts and candy during the ship's various sports events.

On board the W.S.S., the seamen presented three one-act plays, "The Roman Kid," "Thursdays at Home," and "Pretty Girl "Wanted."

The two ships once more docked for a three months' leave.

September, 1953 found the W.S.S. and the W.T.S.S. embarking as two ships for the last time.

The officers on the W.T.S.S. remained the same except for the positions of Captain and First Mate, which were reversed.

Meanwhile, aboard the W.S.S., the Purser was now Sylvia Yordy, and Ned Adams held the position of First Mate.

The seamen on the W.T.S.S. enjoyed participating in the following events: the ship's annual play, "Rest Assured," a party, food sales, and the selling of candy at Christmas time. The superior officers of the ship were entertained at the Junior-Senior Prom, soon after which the entire crew revisited Hershey Park.

On the decks of the W.S.S. three one-act plays—"Ringing in the Groom," "Campaign for Two," and "For Whom the Telephone Rings"—were presented. This ship also showed respect to the senior officers by a semi-formal dance.

One shared highlight for both crews was the get-acquainted day when the sailors from the W.T.S.S. boarded the W.S.S.

The latter part of May found both vessels docking to refuel in Senior Harbor.

During the past several years a new ship had been in the process of construction. On September 8, 1954, crews from both the W.T.S.S. and the W.S.S. boarded her. Soon after her christening, the S.S. '55 started on her maiden voyage.

The new officers, Franklin Woodring, Captain; Don Martin, First Mate; Miriam Delauter, Steward; and Barbara Hanna, Purser, had been seasoned by experience.

Early in October the sailors posed for their passport pictures which event was followed by the ordering of name cards and announcements of the forthcoming graduation.

With the prospect of a glorious three-day shore leave in New York City in May, the crew energetically set to work on a variety of fund-raising projects. The first of these was a three-act comedy, "Girl Crazy," which was a huge success. On Faschnaut Day, a great many of the industrious crew spent the entire day in the galley making doughnuts to be sold at a basketball game that night. A local theater gave the crew a discount on the number of movie tickets which the sailors sold. In addition, five food sales were planned to finance the expedition.

Meanwhile spring had arrived and a tiny ridge of land could be seen on the horizon. This signified that after four years, the crew was approaching its long-awaited destination.

On May 29, 1955, the Baccalaureate service was held.

Just after the sun had set on that memorable day of June 1, the S.S. '55 pulled into home port. One hundred forty-five seamen presented themselves on deck for Farewell Exercises in the form of a commencement ceremony. Awards were presented and the members of the crew went forth to assume their commissions in life.

Seniors Present Broadway Comedy, "Girl Crazy"

The time is 7:58. Tensely everyone awaited the tick of the clock. "OK. Good luck, everybody. Dim the lights. Curtain! Sound effects!"

"Watch comin' up those steps, second one ain't there." "Oh! No. This can't be Buzzard's Ranch" . . . And thus the class play was under way on February 17 and 19.

The production was "Girl Crazy" the straight version of the Broadway comedy, by George and Ira Gershwin, and was capably directed by John E. Minnich.

Behind the footlights, the cast had practiced for a month of hard work, armed with dangerous (?) pistols and guns, ropes, lassoes, and plenty of cowboy gear.

And then there were late practices and set construction problems . . . and quick costume changes on production nights . . . Gene's high falsetto for Fifi la Melba . . . "X's" always getting the motions right during the love scenes but just not remembering the lines . . . and the elation of everyone at the huge crowds.

" Oh, the West! Where men are men . . . and the women are so glad."

Junior Jauntings

When we walked through the doors of the Waynesboro Area High School this year, we entered for the first time as upperclassmen. Our enrollment was greatly increased, due to the jointure with Washington Township High School.

Our primary task was the election of officers. The class chose Joe Steiner as president, while Howard Sheeley assumed the position of vice-president. Sara Jane Gsell and Virginia Stover were elected as secretary and treasurer, respectively. These capable officers guided us in our numerous tasks, such as securing class rings and the most important event, the Junior-Senior Prom.

The Junior-Senior Prom was, by far, the most outstanding event conducted by the class of 1956. The gala, fun-filled evening was one of the highlights in an exciting month. The Reverend George H. Bitner and Robert Cutchall deserve a great deal of recognition for their superior guidance in planning the prom.

In addition to participating in many of the activities in school, the boys and girls produced three fine one-act plays, "Opening Night," "The Professor Roars" and "A Girl in Every Port." All three of these were capably directed by John E. Minnich. This function, as well as the many other school events, gave the class of 1956 a memorable year.

Sophomore Sailings

The class of 1957 came to the senior high school 188, strong, from Mont Alto, Washington Township, and Waynesboro.

An election of class officers reflected our quick acceptance of each other as we chose for president Teddy McKenzie from Washington Township; for vice-president, Larry Rojahn of Waynesboro; for secretary, Judith Bishop of Waynesboro; and for treasurer, Jean Duffield of Mont Alto. Mr. Newman acted as our class advisor.

Twenty-eight members of our class were on the honor role while ten served on the staff of the Blue and Gold.

Athletically, we were all represented, too. Twenty-eight boys were on the football squad, and ten were on the basketball team. Four girls won berths on the Zephyr squad.

Our dramatic debut was made in April, when three one-act plays were presented under the direction of Mr. Minnich.

We have amazed Mr. Shively by our knowledge and Mr. Brady by our lack of it. Although our activities as a class have been limited, we are glad to have made a name for ourselves as Sophomores.

Blue and Gold Reviews School Activities

The Blue and Gold weighed anchor this year under the expert steering of the advisor and his staff. It was auspicious enough to arrive at its destination financially independent.

A peek through the porthole reveals the type of portage which is of interest to the student body. En voyage the passengers are perusing through the news section containing the most recent happenings of the organizations, previews on the coming plays, and assemblies. Jokes and informal gossip, plus a few extraordinary classroom antics, are portrayed on the feature pages. Quite a bit of interest is centered on the sports page which contains all the athletic events in a thrilling play-by-play description.

The promptness of meeting the deadline on every issue is attributed to the excellent co-operation of the editors.

Student Council Is Host to District Conference

With every student's interest at heart the Student Council makes its democratic decisions. The members of this governing body, which meets at noon every Tuesday, are chosen from each homeroom and are capably guided by Miss Gladys Mikesell

Anne Lindeman, Barbara Shildneck, and Don Mort were chosen to represent the organization at the Pennsylvania State Convention held at Abington.

The council has sponsored many profitable events, including teas for the members of each class and their parents, dances after several athletic contests, cafeteria passes, and activity cards. They have also been assembling a school handbook and constitution.

The one outstanding event to which all the members of Student Council looked forward throughout the year was the honor accorded to them as hosts of the annual Pennsylvania Southern District Conference of Student Councils held in April. The educational value of this conference was far superior to the great amount of time and effort required for its preparation.

All students will gladly say that the Student Council is worthy of a "thank you" for its unselfish work throughout the entire year.

Sorority Undertakes Community Projects

"Hail, hail the gang's all here!" This is the theme of the Tau Kappa Phi Sorority when they start off on another project or social activity. Their activities during the fall included the decorating of the halls during football season, the painting of the children's ward at the Waynesboro Hospital and a semi-formal Thanksgiving Dance with music by Luke Baer and his orchestra. This dance was open to all high school students and their guests. They gave "Old Man Winter" a congenial welcome by having the underpriviledged children of the community as guests of honor at a Christmas Party. Later they gave another party for the younger girls cottage of the E. U. B. Orphanage. For their Spring project, the girls gave a helping hand to the Crippled Children's Easter Seal drive by stuffing the envelopes for mailing.

The sorority holds its meetings twice a month at one of the member's home. At these meetings they discuss, among many things, their plans for food sales which are their money-making projects.

It can readily be seen that the aim to create friendship and co-operation among the girls in school and community life is capably conducted.

Band Wins Many Honors

Boom! Boom! Boom! Come on mates, let's go. That must be the Waynesboro Band stopping in the square to do a routine on the way to the football stadium.

This active organization represented the school in many phases. It was on hand at every football game to boost the morale of the team and provided accompaniment for the cheers of the crowd.

This year for the first time the band journeyed to Pennsylvania State University for Band Day. The reward for the band members who spent time in preparation for the event was the opportunity to witness a big college game.

Another memorable event was a $100 scholarship won by the band as a result of its excellent showing in Harrisburg at the Industrial and Constructional Exposition Parade. It also received prizes in the Hagerstown and Chambersburg Halloween parades.

The band was also represented in state, district, and county band. In addition it participated in the local Christmas parade, put on an assembly program, and provided an evening's entertainment during Music Week.

This blue and gold clad organization with approximately eighty members, concluded its spring engagements by participating in the Winchester Apple Blossom Festival parade on April 29.

Chorus Boasts School's Largest Organization

The swelling of the voices of the many members of Chorus comes to our ears twice a week as the school's largest organization rehearses.

Two members of Chorus, Richard Thompson and Joyce Helm, had the privilege of representing Waynesboro Area High School at District Chorus, which was held at New Bloomfield.

The entire group gave a radio broadcast, a Christmas program, and their annual concert in the spring. Members of the group have also performed at various community events.

Mr. Nogle, as director, deserves much praise for the success of Chorus as does also Anne Lindeman, its capable accompanist.

Orchestra Provides Commencement Music

Every Wednesday afternoon the seventh period, one hears the thirty-two members of the orchestra practicing part of their large repertoire. Perhaps the biggest and most exciting job that the group performs is playing for Commencement. Also, it plays for such events as the senior class play and assemblies.

Four members of our orchestra, Patricia Shoop, Carol Merklinger, Carolyn Bearinger, and Charles Bearinger, were chosen to represent the Waynesboro Area High School at the annual District Orchestra Festival held in Camp Hill on January 6, 7, and 8.

Much of the success of this musical organization is due to the unselfish work of the director, Mr. Zimmerman.

Choir Is Represented at State Chorus

The most active music organigation this year was choir. Members of this group were chosen as a result of vocal try-outs.

From this organization originated several smaller groups which appeared separately on several occasions.

The choir provided the music for the Thanksgiving and Christmas programs with two special half-hour radio broadcasts of the latter. On Christmas Eve the choir gathered in the square of Waynesboro to sing carols. The choir also participated in the Spring Concert and in the graduation exercises. Portions of the group appeared at the Lions Club, College Club, Leiter Brothers' Christmas party, Children's Ward of the Sanatorium, and in different churches.

The choir consisted of eighty members. Out of this group seniors were selected to participate in County Chorus held at Quincy High School.

Richard Thompson and Joyce Helm were selected to attend the District Chorus in New Bloomfield. Richard later was chosen to represent Waynesboro at State Chorus which was held at Minersville.

Velvetones Provide Smooth Dance Music

Hear that sweet, smooth music? Yes, you've guessed it—your're listening to the Velvetones.

This distinguished group of thirteen members does its share of entertaining. Besides playing for several dances at the Y.M.C.A. throughout the year, it played for the Student Council dance in March. Also, the entire student body enjoyed dancing to the dance band's music at its annual assembly in the gym.

Tri-Hi-Y Sends Delegates to United Nations Assembly

This democratic organization was sponsored jointly by the local high school and Y.M.C.A. as a center of activity for girls, who wish "to create, maintain, and to extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

The club met bi-monthly in the Y.M.C.A. under the supervision of Mr. Wilson along with Miss Nancy Martz of the "Y" and Miss Blanche Eyler of the school faculty as co-advisers to enjoy a planned program with a speaker and business session or to enjoy an evening of fun and sport.

The outstanding event was the world friendship project known as the United Nations Assembly in Harrisburg. Joanne McFerren and Jane Toms represented the club as delegate and alternate, respectively. The Christmas party was a service project for the Milton Wright Home. A joint installation, induction, and rededication service with the Hi-Y was our only ceremonial for the year. To honor our homes we again gave a Mother and Daughter Banquet. Some of our planned recreations were square dancing, roller skating, a scavenger hunt, and swimming.

Hi-Y Provides Religious Emphasis

The Hi-Y is an auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association. The religious emphasis provides for group attendance at Church once each month. The boys attend a different church on the second Sunday of each month.

The Hi-Y joined with the Tri-Hi-Y and attended the community Thanksgiving service.

Their social activities included several roller skating parties, field trips, and a picnic in the spring.

Membership is open to all boys in the sophomore, junior and senior classes. Its primary purpose is to bring together the boys of the senior high school into a Christian affiliation which is interdenominational and non-sectarian in nature. It aims to influence the moral and spiritual lives of its members.

Library Club

Lends A Helping Hand

No matter what your purpose for going to the library, whether it be to read the paper or latest magazine, or to get reference for that history notebook, you will find the members of the Library Club courteous and willing to lend a helping hand.

Under the supervision of the librarian, Miss Lowry, the girls are taught how to efficiently perform the duties of a good librarian.

However the Library Club does not believe in "all work and no play." The members elect officers and these officers in turn plan social activities throughout the year.

The hours spent in this organization are compensated by valuable information as well as the satisfaction found in contributing a worth while service to the school.

F. F. A. Maintains A Variety of Projects

The Future Farmers of America, is the national organization of boys studying vocational agriculture in the public secondary schools. This citizenship club provides an excellent opportunity for those interested in farming to meet and exchange ideas.

The boys' projects, ranging from the raising of cattle, swine, and poultry to home repair, are the mainstays of the organization and a requirement for membership.

The club sold seeds both as a money-making project and as a service to farmers. The boys also raised money by holding skating parties. The money was used to pay state and national dues, to buy refreshments for meetings, and for the purchase of club banners.

The sixteen members of F.F.A. meet at least once a month with Mr. Jacobs, as their capable advisor.

"Tribesmen" Is New Addition to Choral Groups

The "Tribesmen", a new choral organization this year, was open to any boy in the high school who wished to participate.

Being a new group, they made only two appearances during the year. The annual vocal assembly in February featured them, and the year's work closed with the spring concert. In addition, they joined with the "Crew Chiefs" in a broadcast over WAYZ.

The president of the "Tribesmen" was Robert Sheffler; their accompanist, Thelma Rinehart.

Our "Crew Chiefs" was a very popular quartet around town this year. In addition to competing in Forensics, they made guest appearances in a large number of local churches, took part in the Christmas concert, spring concert, the annual vocal assembly, and performed for two radio broadcasts, a television program, Lions Club, College Club, Republican Club, March of Dimes Campaign and a Nurserymen's Convention. Their accompanist was Lessa Lohman.

Cheerleaders Boost School Morale

This year's cheerleading squad was composed of nine cheerleaders, dressed in attractive uniforms bearing the school's colors, blue and gold. They did a fine job of cheering for both basketball and football games, and the school's morale was boosted by their efforts.

The girls devoted many hours in practicing cheers and faithfully attended all athletic events.

In order to raise money for new uniforms, the girls, under the guidance of Mrs. Harriet Biddle, sponsored a movie, "Jim Thorpe All-American," which was open to all the students at a small fee.

Indians Have a Successful Season

The Waynesboro Area High School Indians gave a good account of themselves in the 1954 season, winning three games and losing five. The 1954 season marked the start of a new era in football for Waynesboro since it was the first year of jointure. The Indians, directed by Coach Brady, provided the best team Waynesboro fans have seen for several years. The boys worked hard and played good football all season.

On September 17 the Indians opened their eight game schedule by defeating Shippensburg 20-13. The Tribe jumped an an early lead and kept it as they won the opener.

On September 24, the Tribe dropped the second game to a powerful Martinsburg eleven 27-0. Waynesboro didn't give up until the final whistle but couldn't seem to penetrate the strong Martinsburg defense.

On October 1, playing their first home game of the season, the Indians came out on the short end of a 28-0 decision. Carlisle's Thundering Herd proved too much competition for the Bradymen.

On October 8, the Indians snapped a two game losing streak by defeating Gettysburg 6-0. The Tribe outclassed the Warriors from start to finish, playing most of the game in Gettysburg territory.

On October 22, after seeing their first period drive stopped deep in Mechanicsburg territory the Indians completely folded before a classy Wild-cat eleven 38-0.

October 29—In the most thrilling contest of the season the Tribe dropped a 25-24 decision to the Chambersburg Trojans. Gary Barkdoll, ace senior back, ran back the opening kick of the game 95 yards to give the Indians an early lead. The lead changed hands several times throughout the game. Barkdoll raced 20 yards to score in the closing seconds to make the score 25-24, but when his plunge for the extra point missed by inches, the Tribe lost a heartbreaker.

November 12—The Bradymen lost the season's finale to Hershey 28-7.

Waynesboro can be very proud of the 1954 Indians. Facing a tough schedule they finished the season with a respectable 3-5 record.

Papooses Gain Valuable Experience

Playing a junior varsity schedule for the first time in several years, the Papooses under the coaching of Bob Sheffler compiled a 1-3 record.

The team consisting mostly of Sophomores, defeated Shippensburg 18-6 in the opener. They lost to Quincy Orphanage by a score of 20-6. The team then dropped a 34-6 decision to the Scotland School J. V's. and finished the season by losing to Chambersburg 20-0. The boys gained much valuable experience that will be helpful to the varsity in the future.

J.V's. Provide Preliminary Thrillers

Finishing the season with a record of 8 wins and 12 losses the "Little Indians" gained much valuable experience that will help our future varsity teams. Coach Dave Rhone worked hard with the squad, consisting mostly of sophomores. The boys played a good, hard brand of basketball and made some of the preliminary games as exciting as the varsity encounters. Pete Eden led the team in scoring and also acted as captain.

Braves Establish Good Record

Completing the season with a record of 9 wins and 11 loses against a rugged schedule, the Indians can credit themselves with a good season. Under the skilled guidance of Coach Harry Pure the squad worked long hours in an effort to give the school a good team. Starting with the opening day of practice on November 1, the team practiced diligently for the first game on December 14, and the first of a 20-game schedule.

The Indians started the season in grand style winning 6 of their first 9 games. Here the youthful tribe hit a snag and dropped 7 games in a row. However, they came back strong to take 3 of their last 4 games, including an upset win over a highly touted Martinsburg five.

Short on size but long on speed and the will to win, Pure's Braves gave Waynesboro fans some of the fastest and most thrilling basketball they had seen for some time. Joe Caron and Carroll Hardle acted as co-captains for the team.

Girls Display Fine Sportsmanship

The 1954-55 season saw a satisfying girls' team with co-operation as its keynote.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Biddle they provided the spectators with many thrills and exhibited good sportsmanship throughout the season. The girls finished the season with a 2-7 record. Shirley Tracey and Rosemary Gabler acted as co-captains of the team.

IN THE HOME –

Your electric company employs thoroughly trained Home Service Advisors who devote their full time to those aspects of home-making concerned with electricity. Among the FREE services they provide are those concerned with:

CANNING—Ask for information, free labels and leaflets.

DEMONSTRATIONS—Free cooking and laundry demonstrations for clubs and organizations.

RECIPES—In our files are recipes for every type of dish; our Home Service Advisor will be glad to share that information with you. Ask for our FREE recipe booklets.

ON THE FARM –

The company maintains a Farm Department for the purpose of aiding farmers in any problems involving the use of electricity. The services of our Farm Representatives can be as helpful to you as they have proved to be to a great many farmers of this area.

TRADE FRICK MARK®

UNIT AIR CONDITIONERS

Serve this busy store, as well as restaurants, hotels, offices, factories and many other businesses, everywhere. Note how neatly the conditioner was adapted to the layout of the store through duct-work: this is typical of the complete engineering service you get with Frick equipment.

Frick air conditioners have many advantages . . . larger cooling surfaces . . . insulated condensers . . . self-cleaning filters . . . heavier, quieter construction . . . three sizes . . . backed by over 70 years' refrigeration experience.

These Units are built in 3, 5 and 7½ horsepower sizes. The largest is illustrated. Finished is a beautiful Hammermatic mottled blue-grey.

For complete details call Waynesboro 1245.

It was our pleasure to have worked with the Staff and Advisers of the 1955 Wayarian in doing the Printing of this Annual.

Best of friends
& a real cute
sister
Alice

Doris,

To one of my favorite classmates. I have enjoyed your company very much. Our Senior year has been the closest for you and me. Never forget our trip to New York and all the fun we had there. I'll never forget that record we recorded. Real queer wasn't it. I'll never forget when we went to the drugstore at 2:30 in the morning for cough medicine. Hid you enjoy yourself at Coney Island? Be good + have fun.

Always a friend, pal, and buddy,

Vonnie
